1. Remember and be reassured that we are writing from a standpoint before God that is brutally honest yet fully trusting.

2. You can use this handout in any way that is helpful to you to express yourself before God however, it is recommended that you try to tap into your creative right brain and explore how to write in the style of a Psalm - like a poem or a song, rather than journalling or writing in paragraphs. You can even draw if that helps you express yourself best! Do what works for you.

3. If it helps, try to think of metaphors, word pictures and similes to describe your pain or situation, these can be great avenues of expression when describing painful things in lament.

What do you want to lament?

Use this space to reflect on what aspect of life you are grieving that you may want to bring before God. As you reflect, what image or metaphor comes to mind that could help describe your situation?

Lament metaphors to consider

Drowning
Unrelenting rain
Snow that never melts
Shattered glass
Carrying a heavy burden
Unending night
An Empty Room
Crashing Waves
Endless Fog
Sinking Sand
Emptiness
A Broken Record
Driving with no destination
Walking on eggshells
1. Cry out to God

Cry out to God. How will you address God? How do you believe your relationship with God will initiate change in your life?

Psalm 28
To you, O Lord, I call; My rock, be not deaf to me.

Psalm 13
How Long O’ Lord?

Psalm 94
O Lord, God of vengeance, O God of vengeance, shine forth!

Psalm 22
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

Psalm 6
I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping.

My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes.

Psalm 22
Yet it was you who took me from the womb; you kept me safe on my mother’s breast.

On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me you have been my God.

Psalm 13
But I trust in your unfailing love. I will rejoice because you have rescued me.

2. Complaint

What is your complaint? What anger, pain, heartache or sadness do you have that may need to be discussed with God?

Psalm 22
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

Psalm 6
I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping.

My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes.

Psalm 22
Yet it was you who took me from the womb; you kept me safe on my mother’s breast.

On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me you have been my God.

Psalm 13
But I trust in your unfailing love. I will rejoice because you have rescued me.

3. Affirmation of Trust

Have you experienced God being on your side in the past? Is there something you can look back on in which you experienced the presence of divine love in your life?

Psalm 28
To you, O Lord, I call; My rock, be not deaf to me.

Psalm 13
How Long O’ Lord?

Psalm 94
O Lord, God of vengeance, O God of vengeance, shine forth!

Psalm 22
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

Psalm 6
I am weary with my moaning; every night I flood my bed with tears; I drench my couch with my weeping.

My eye wastes away because of grief; it grows weak because of all my foes.

Psalm 22
Yet it was you who took me from the womb; you kept me safe on my mother’s breast.

On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me you have been my God.

Psalm 13
But I trust in your unfailing love. I will rejoice because you have rescued me.
Psalm 6
Return, O Lord, and rescue me. Save me because of your unfailing love.

Psalm 13
Turn and answer me, O Lord my God! Restore the sparkle to my eyes, or I will die.

Psalm 102
Bend down to listen, and answer me quickly when I call to you.

Psalm 35
Malicious witnesses testify against me. They accuse me of crimes I know nothing about. They repay me evil for good. I am sick with despair. Yet when they were ill, I grieved for them. I denied myself by fasting for them, but my prayers returned unanswered.

Psalm 59
Stagger them with your power, and bring them to their knees, O Lord our shield.

Psalm 28
Give them the punishment they so richly deserve! Measure it out in proportion to their wickedness. Pay them back for all their evil deeds! Give them a taste of what they have done to others.

Petition/Request
What is your deepest desire from God? What do you want for your life situation right now?

Additional Argument
Having gotten in touch with your desire, is there anything else you want to say to God about your need and why God should intervene? What past situations do you want to ‘remind’ God of?

Rage Against Your Enemies
Are there things or people in your life that feel like enemies? How can you bring them to God?
Psalm 6
Go away, all you who do evil, for the Lord has heard my weeping. The Lord has heard my plea, the Lord will answer my prayer.

Psalm 28
Praise the Lord! For the Lord has heard my cry for mercy.

Psalm 13
I will rejoice because you have rescued me. I will sing to the Lord because the Lord is good to me.

Psalm 79
Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will thank you forever and ever, praising your greatness from generation to generation.

Psalm 94
But the Lord is my fortress; my God is the mighty rock where I hide.

Psalm 3
Victory comes from you, O Lord. May you bless your people.

Psalm 60
With God’s help we will do mighty things, for God will trample down our foes.

7. Assurance of being heard
What do you need from God to feel heard? How can you acknowledge that God is listening to your prayer in this moment?

8. Promise or Vow to offer Praise to God
What promise of praise can you offer to God in this moment?

9. Assurance
What attribute of God can you thank God for in this moment? What thing/person/event (no matter how small) can you be grateful for?
